++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Turning dry with clear spells overnight. Cloudy by dawn.

This Evening and Tonight:
Any remaining showers will soon fade during the evening, with plenty of prolonged clear spells overnight across the country. Cloud building from the east towards dawn, but remaining dry. Turning chilly. Minimum temperature 8 deg C (46 deg F).

Sunday:
A bright start in western areas, but remaining cloudy elsewhere. Another dry day for most, however southern areas will see outbreaks of rain later, these sometimes heavy, and possibly thundery. Maximum temperature 21 deg C (70 deg F).

Outlook for Monday to Wednesday:
The rain is likely to become more widespread on Monday, heavy with risk of thunder. Staying cloudy on Tuesday and Wednesday, with further outbreaks expected, though less frequent and intense.
